Saluting Their Service

On the 3rd April 2014 Mr Jason Wood MP will be meeting with the Upwey-Belgrave RSL to share a token of thanks for their services protecting our nation.

“I am very happy to be announcing the award of the “Saluting their service” to the Upwey-Belgrave RSL Sub-branch.” Mr Jason Wood MP said.

This grant will help to install security sensors and interpretive plaques at a display of deactivated rifles and swords in the Running Rabbits Military Museum at the Upwey Belgrave RSL Sub-branch.

Saluting Their Service is an Australian Government initiative that aims to honour the sacrifice and Service of Australia's servicemen and women in wars, conflicts and peace operations, and to Promote appreciation and understanding of the role that those who served have played in shaping the nation.

Mr Jason Wood MP said “The program is designed to preserve our wartime heritage and to involve people throughout the nation in a wide range of activities and projects – a very worthwhile cause in my opinion.”
