MEDIA RELEASE

#LATROBEVOTES Hitting Letterboxes Soon

The #LATROBEVOTES survey on same-sex marriage will be hitting La Trobe letterboxes between the 20th and 25th of July 2015.

An email was recently sent out to all constituents who had contacted Mr Wood by email in the past, to let them know that the opportunity would be available to them soon to register their opinion on whether the Marriage Act (1961) should be changed to allow same-sex marriage in Australia.

In order for constituents views to be recorded in a fair and measurable way they must meet the following criteria.

They must:

- Be enrolled in the electorate of La Trobe with the AEC or VEC
- Include your full name and street address in your response
- Complete the form with matching details to those with the AEC or VEC
- Only vote once

Once constituents receive their #LATROBEVOTES survey they can call Mr Wood's office on 9768 9164, scan the QR code on the survey to record their response online, or fold, seal and return the survey via reply paid post.

You can follow the La Trobe poll on same-sex marriage through Mr Wood's social media networks listed below, or keep an eye out for the weekly email update he will be sending out - just remember to look out for #LATROBEVOTES.
